WHAT IT AVLILS US.

We editorially call attontion to the cartoon on Page. 32. . While the writer and cartionist have given us a good doal of surface humor, there ins room for more serious reflection.

In the firmy, during the war, a test was made of the accuracy with which a command was passed down the line by word of mouth. Throc companies wore lined und in icompany:fnontes and a command was given to nambor ono man of the right company̆. - The cotimandivas pásscd down thic lino and oceivod back from the loft guide of the lest platton. Not only had the cormand bccome so changed as. to be unrocognizahlo; during its journeye thru the reviss, but also, if cxccutcd, nould havd given the rovorso. formation of what mas intended by the original compand.

This shous clcarly tho distortion Which any rearak is subjoct to when uscd as a verbel football. What is true of the distoxtcd commend also holds good when appliod to a rumor, on idle ramark, a vọibal kick. : F/e may: htivo a justifiable objoction thic ch, oxpressed by another, takos on an cntircly difforent charactor and:by the time the fifth jorson has repoatcd it, "ibeare quoted as seying something that hadn't ontcred our hoads.

Somo paychologists say that our onvironmont is directly"rosponsiblc for the ma jorrity "of" our actions'. Suroly, our mental attutude is changed as much in one direction by tho merc presonce of an habiturl possimist as it is in the other dirroction by the sunny smilo of an optimist. Nozo of us like to be unhappy and yot most of us givc voico to faricied ills that inflict upon dis' - and thosc around the veny unhappincess that we mould shun, The' nopt "timo you bond your room-mato's" car "inth a recital of your kicks; romembor first thet cro the repital is over, both of you will focl mor'so thian bofore.
